TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- 1) ATD Online Registration is required for all participants and dealer principle.
- 2) Social Security number must be provided upon registration to participate in ProRewards.
- 3) Fill in all blanks and print all information on each claim form. Illegible and incomplete claims will be returned to you unprocessed.
- 4) To avoid confusion use only numbers in the "number of units" column.
- 5) Always keep a copy of your claim for your records. Allow 4 – 6 weeks for processing.
- 6) If you earn more than $600.00 in any calendar year, you will receive a 1099 form, and you are responsible for any taxes due – check with your accountant for information and responsibilities.
- 7) You must attach invoice copies for each tire sold to consumers. What is acceptable: copies of dealership sales receipts (invoices) that reflect the receipt number, date of sale, customer's name and address, product name, quantity sold, and price must be submitted for each product claimed. What is not acceptable: Invoices for products purchased from your distributor, computer generated reports, bank card receipts, work orders, estimates, delivery orders, cash register receipts and any other report or receipt that does not reflect the required consumer and product information. Unacceptable documentation will result in the claim being returned unprocessed.
- 8) Addition errors in completing the claim forms will result in adjustments to the claim form by Tire Pros. Only those items that are substantiated will be paid.
- 9) Claims must be postmarked by the 20th of each month. Claims postmarked after the deadline will be returned to you unprocessed. Tire Pros accepts no responsibility for late, incomplete, lost, postage-due, misdirected or undeliverable mail.
- 10) If evidence of duplicate invoices for claimed tires, and /or duplicate invoices from more than one salesperson in a single dealer location is found, all the participants involved will be subject to immediate termination from the program and any monies received will be recovered.
- 11) Claims for wholesale tires sold (anyone who will resell the products) and claimed on a retail incentive form are not eligible.
- 12) National account, government and secondary supply purchases do not count towards payment.
- 13) All claims are subject to audit and verification by Tire Pros and its suppliers. If any irregularities are found the claim will be returned to the participant. If the participant resubmits the claim prior to the deadline and it meets all the program requirements, it will be processed for payment.
- 14) If for any reason the claim is misrepresented, the participant and the dealership will be subject to removal from the program. If previously paid claims are identified with a problem during a program audit, the participant and the dealership can be responsible for repayment of all incentive funds and subject to removal from the program. Specifics listed below (but not limited to the following) will be returned for clarification to the participant;
 - a. Tires listed without supporting documentation.
 - b. Claims submitted with work orders as documentation.
 - c. Tires listed under the wrong incentive category.
 - d. Claims submitted with computer generated sales reports in lieu of invoices.
 - e. Claims not properly filled out and signed.
- 15) Irregularities may result in my disqualification from the ProRewards Incentive Program and possible repayment of funds received.
- 16) Tire Pros reserves the right to recover any monies improperly obtained by the participant. If direct recovery attempts fail, responsibility of repayment of any monies obtained through dishonest or negligent practices of employees will reside with the dealership. Until such time that all monies are repaid the entire dealership will be removed from the ProRewards Program.

I have read and understand the terms and conditions of the ProRewards Incentive Program and certify with my signature that the information contained herein and within the accompanying documentation is true and accurately represents the qualifying sales.
